African Footprint Was Spectacular

By Michele Edwards

As the sun dipped into the western horizon on Wednesday, February 20, 2008 BCREA members Tom & Harriet Drilling, Carol Call, Michele Edwards, Charles & Martha Pipes dined on the patio of the Palm Grille in Riverfront. Following dinner they strolled along the New River to Broward Center for the Performing Arts where they joined Susan

Lochrie, Frances Smoot & her daughter dressed in colorful African garb; and Gwen Batie (r) and her friend Annie Gillespie. Pre-show warm-up in the lobby included a hands-on demonstration of traditional African instruments, a drum performance, and a lecture-demonstration on African dress and dance traditions. Con't on p2, Cultural Affairs

The Ziller & Falconer Road Show!

"If you're going to China, you can expect lots of walking!" declared FREA Travel Coordinator Arlene Ziller. "The Great Wall, especially, has lots of steps!" She further explained that there are lots of individual trips on a tour of China - she counted 13 different airline flights as well as a river cruise on her trip in September. As she spoke, she passed around packets of postcards which illustrated the beauty of the country.

Margarite Falconer's plan was to discuss her 3 all-time favorite trips - #1: a train trip across the USA ; #2: a South American cruise on Holland America's Rotterdam; and #3: A Rhine River cruise from Basel to Amsterdam. That was the plan; however, her enthusiasm for her #1 favorite resulted in a lack of time to tell about the other two! She told of the Gateway Arch in St. Louis, the "Texas Eagle" segment of the trip in which she got a "roomette" - a tiny room with a bed; Tombstone and Boot Hill in Tucson; Arneau's Restaurant in New Orleans; trolley tours that allow getting off and on at will which she did in Washington, DC; and the "Silver Star" from Washington to Ft. Lauderdale! The entire trip cost less than $1000! And she even passed out Amtrak brochures so members could plan their own train trips.

President's Corner

Congratulations to our newly elected officers for next year. It is wonderful that we have members who are able and willing to serve as officers and on our committees. They will need the support of our members to be successful. I am sure they will have it. If you any ideas for programs or any other suggestions, I am sure they will welcome them. Keep informed about the Florida legislature which is meeting now. Hopefully they will increase the contribution the state makes toward paying for health insurance for retirees. You may want to contact your legislators about this matter.

Con't from African Footprint

Once seated in the theatre, the house lights dimmed and the production transported us to the cultural/historical world of Africa.

The music, dance, song, costume, set and effects mesmerized, entertained and educated. Noting that this performance replaced Lord of the Dance in the BCREA cultural activity season, the post-show exit conversations compared African Footprint to Riverdance and/or Stomp that many had seen. Susan Lochrie summed up our response when she said, "It makes Riverdance appear boring!" I believe we all concurred.

WE HAVE A WINNER . . . Fifth Grade Essay Contest

Thanks to our very astute judges - Kathlyn Barno, Thomas Drilling, Harriett Drilling, Jean Childers and Florence Jones - who had the awesome job of choosing one winner out of 64 essays! The winner of the Fifth Grade Essay Contest on "My Experiences /Relationship with a Grandparent or Grandparent Figure" is Stephanie Figueroa, a student in Mrs. Donna Thomson's fifth grade class at Lakeside Elementary School. Her essay is titled "The Most Awesome Experience." Congratulations, Stephanie!

Stephanie will be invited to our May meeting along with her parents/teacher to read her essay.

We would like to thank all of the participants (students, teachers and principals) for all of their efforts.

Hopefully our winner will be the state winner.

Take-Stock Needs Mentors!

Children need positive role models. They need a resource, a confidant, a friend. Someone to help them make positive choices in life.

Someone to help them think about consequences before they act. They need someone who will listen. They need a mentor. They need you.

Take Stock in Children is a comprehensive program that helps low-income children stay in school, earn a high school diploma, graduate from college and enter the workforce. Enrolling students as early as sixth grade, Take Stock in Children offers each child a college tuition scholarship, a volunteer mentor, a case manager, and long-term support. The children in the program sign performance contracts agreeing to get good grades, exhibit positive behavior and remain drug and crime free.

You can change a child's life by becoming a mentor. In just 30 - 60 minutes a week or bi-weekly, you can make a lasting impact in the life of a child. For more information or to sign up to become a mentor contact

In spite of heavy storms on March 6, 47 members and 5 guests braved the elements to attend the meeting! Among those were new members Gloria Brown and Evelyn Johnston; first time attendee Joan Lederer; and 2 whom we hadn't seen for awhile, Edie Fisher and Mary Geiger. Welcome everyone!

Three members have had recent surgeries: Madeline Martin has recovered from her 8-hour surgery for a double-hernia last month! Ruth Travers reports that Ginny Dewar had foot surgery on March 6. Doris Emmett let us know that Edgar Elder also had hernia surgery on March 5. Kathlyn Barno missed the meeting because she's suffering with a shoulder problem. We wish them all speedy recoveries.

Good news from Carol Call - she missed the March meeting because her daughter gave birth to a little boy - a month early! Even though he weighed 5 pounds, 15 ounces, he has to stay in neo-natal for a week due to his early arrival. Winners in the Scholarship Raffle were Martha Pipes ($20), Judy Joseph ($15) and Madeline Martin ($10). Frances Smoot missed the meeting as she was attending the FREA Scholarship Committee meeting in Ocala. I should have put it in the March issue, but I didn't realize it came early this year! So, if this reaches you before Easter, I hope you have a very Happy Passover to our Jewish members too! (Sorry - They don't have a "Happy Passover" in clipart!) And that's the last byte for April!

Julie Andrews' Current Favorites!

To commemorate her 69th birthday on October 1, actress/vocalist Julie Andrews made a special appearance at Manhattan's Radio City Music Hall for the benefit of the AARP. One of the musical numbers she performed was the following adaptation of "My Favorite Things" from the legendary movie The Sound Of Music.

Maalox and nose drops and needles for knitting, Walkers and handrails and new dental fittings, Bundles of magazines tied up in string,
These are a few of my favorite things.

Cadillacs and cataracts, and hearing aids and glasses,

Polident and Fixodent and false teeth in glasses, Pacemakers, golf carts and porches with swings,
These are a few of my favorite
things.

When the pipes leak,
When the bones creak,
When the knees go bad,
I simply remember my favorite
things,
And then I don't feel so bad.

Hot tea and crumpets and corn pads for bunions,
No spicy hot food or food cooked
with onions, Bathrobes and heating pads and hot meals they bring,
These are a few of my favorite
things.

Back pains, confused brains, and no need for sinnin', Thin bones and fractures and hair that is thinnin',
And we won't mention our short shrunk frames,
When we remember our favorite
things.

When the joints ache,
When the hips break,
When the eyes grow dim,
Then I remember the great life I've had,
And then I don't feel so bad.

Ms. Andrews received a standing ovation from the crowd that lasted over four minutes!
